

Curriculum Intent Plan

Subject: English

Overview

Students will be introduced to a range of texts, all of which will be used develop student skills in reading – comprehension, inference, language analysis, audience and author – and writing – purpose, audience, content and technical accuracy. The concept behind this is to build engagement and enjoyment through introducing students to a range of texts, developing reading for pleasure, whilst building skills for a successful English academic journey.

